EIGHTSEERS

Scene Colorado is the destination of our sightseeing neighbors, the Floyd McEwins, of Marigold Avenue. They expect to be home from their motoring vacation within two weeks. September 2 will find the Fred Grobes, departing on a 16 day vacation accompanied by their two children, Danny and Kay. Before returning to their Double Avenue address they will have visited Mrs. Grobe's parents and the Dan Campbell of Arroyo City, Colorado. While in that city they will also be entertained by other relatives and plan to motor to Ordway, Colorado which Mrs. Grobe claims as her old home town.

Mrs. Robert West accompanied by her brother Alan Getz, on a joyous spending-a-day-at-Catalina Island last week. Mr. Getz will soon be returning to his home in Chicago, Illinois and will carry with him many pleasant memories of his visit with the Wests who live in Normont Terrace on 256 street.

Mrs. N. P. Hansen, of San Francisco, has been a visitor for the past week at home of her daughter, Mrs. Bob Hodgins, wife of Bob Hodgins better known as "Coach Hodgins." Janice Green, daughter of the Elga Greens, of 256 street, accepted an invitation to spend the day with her friend, Mary Ady at her home in Torrance. The Ady family are former residents of Normont Terrace.

Barbecued steaks were enjoyed by the Fred Poetzschs in the patio of Ed and Betty Kaufman, in La Crescenta. While in La Crescenta for the weekend the Poetzschs were also entertained by Mrs. Pearl O'Neil, aunt of both Mrs. Poetzsch and Mrs. Kaufman. They enjoyed the scenic view from her cabin atop the foothills.

PIRATES
Mrs. Elga Green entertained on Thursday last, with a victory party for the winning softball team, "The Pirates." The team members were David Hecht and Paul Herrera; Jimmy and Frank Hecht; Ralph Nadeo; "Kilroy" Leyva; Danny Gravett; Larry Ash; Lyle Green; Donald Festa; Sylvan Andrews; and James Thomas. Pictures of the team were taken by Mrs. Green and games including "gossamer" were enjoyed by the refreshments of ice cream and cake as well as rootbeer were served by their hostess.

RECUPERATE
Among those recuperating from the mumps are Bonnie Jo Dadds, Gwen and Gary Diffe. Mrs. Ruby Bradford, of 258 street, reports she has recovered from her siege of pneumonia.

PARTY
Friends of Mrs. Grace Bullard gathered at the home of Mrs. Grace Kelly for a going away party when they learned that the Bullards will soon be moving to San Bernardino where Mr. Bullard will begin his teaching career in the eighth school in that city. Mrs. Kelly with Mrs. Alne Eggleston acting as co-hostess entertained Mesdames Bessie Williamson, Gladys Blaine, Marvel Farrell, Alma Woolums, Phyllis Currier, Alma Price, Genora Ellingsworth, Betty Flinn, Edna Wandel, Mrs. Tracy, Betty McCartney, Hilda Green, Florence Brady, Miss Eva Hoffman and Mrs. Jay Bullard. Refreshments were served, and the many friends gathered wished them good luck as they make their new home elsewhere.

FISHING TRIP
Beginners' luck was successful for Karl Hellstrom, son of your reporter, when he embarked on his first ocean fishing trip with his maternal grandfather, Louis Balz, of Glendale, who spent this past week with us. Three halibut and two perch were the day's catch, and Karl was delighted that he caught more fish than his grandpa, who is a fisherman from a long way back.

BIBLE SCHOOL
Vacation Bible School at Normont Baptist church has proved very successful during its first week with an average daily attendance of 80 children. One of the interesting and constructive projects they are working on is their handwork which when completed will outfit the nursery of the church. There will be two doll houses, complete with furniture, blocks, resplendent by the children's sick horses; shelves for the nursery made from boxes. All of these things will be duplicated for the Childrens Baptist school in Inglewood. On Friday August 26 which will be the last day of vacation school session the handwork will be on display at the church.

SCOUT LEADERS
Among those present at the well attended Scout leaders meeting held in the social hall on Wednesday, Aug. 17, were the Carl Westfalls and Mrs. Elga

Green. These meetings will continue to convene on the third Wednesday of every month, at 7:30, for several months to come. Purpose of this series of meetings is to outline the program for the year and to make necessary revisions to include the new age group whereby boys 8 years of age are eligible to join the Cub Scouts and those 11 years of age may join the Boy Scouts.

BIRTHDAY
Celebrating his 12th birthday last Tuesday, Lyle Green enjoyed with a group of his friends, who accompanied him, a trip to Knott's Berry Farm. They visited the ghost town there and learned how gold was taken from the mines and how one panned for gold. Returning to the Green home on 255 street they were served ice cream and cake. Lyle's guests were Bobby Anderson, Bobby Jester, Eddie Johnston, Jerry Bruce, Lee and Larry Jones, Gilbert Topia, Sylvan Andrews and Leland Green.

SUMMER REC
Climaxing the summer recreation program of Normont's two groups the Candlelighters and Lamplighters, under the direction of Girls Playground Director, Miss Rosalie Ibsitz, was presentation of a skit recently at Anderson Memorial in San Pedro. The skit was also presented at Banning Park and at Normont. Candlelighters include girls between the ages of 6 and 8 years, while the Lamplighters include an age group of 9 to 13. These girls joined forces to comprise the cast of skit called "Sleeping Beauty," with following girls taking part in cast as fairies, Sandra Jean Pfau, Helen Jo Anderson, Janice Green, Virginia Hayne, Margaret Hecht, Patty Claire and Carolyn Montgomery. Cast as the Wicked Fairy was Sonja Anderson, and as the Old Woman was Virginia Anderson. Queen was played by Shirley Anderson, King by Janet Wright, with Prince part played by Claudette Wright. Mary Lou Johnston took the part of the princess and the announcing duties were Sandra Finley. Two other pages were Ruth Wright and Shirley Van Drill. Nurse part was taken by Patricia Schermerhorn, Stella Montez was a Lord, and Lady was Evelyn Stone. People in the court were Ramona Van Devere, Carolyn Miller and Polly McCallan.

Last week the Lamplighters enjoyed a trip to Cabrillo Beach with their director, Rosalie Ibsitz. Those who journeyed to the beach to swim, visited the museum there, were Margaret Hecht, Stella Montez, Patty Claire, Shirley Anderson, Sandra Finley, Carol Montgomery, Carolyn Miller, Mary Lou Johnston, Janet Wright, Claudette Wright and Patricia Schermerhorn. Washington will be the destination of the Bob Hodgins who left last Sunday for a two week vacation.

ROAMERS
This past week brought visitors to the home of Chester Stions of Petroleum Avenue. Here for a month's stay are the Harry Milbergers of Denver, Colorado. Mrs. Milberger and Mrs. Stion are sisters. Aimer Anderson, son of Alfred Andersons, of this community has just returned from overseas service. Having spent the past 18 months in Japan, with the United States Army, he has received his discharge since returning home. Miss Carole Gary has returned to Sioux City, Iowa after having spent the past two weeks visiting the home of her sister, Mrs. Duane Byerley on Doble Avenue.

SHOWER
Acting as hostess for a surprise stork shower recently was Mrs. Richard Taggood of Marigold Avenue. The honoree was Mrs. Russell Miller who lives in the Lomita Pines section of Harbor City. Mrs. Frank Kovacevich extended the hospitality of her home recently to the monthly meeting of the St. Mary's Guild in order that items, namely, wishing wells, could be prepared for the forthcoming bazaar to be conducted by the St. Mary Margaret church. On hand to assist with the preparations were: Mesdames Arthur Ruiz, Richard Haggood, Paul Laine and Don Armes.

PRESENTING
Mrs. Lealie W. Stone, a talented artist, has been chosen by your reporter as the subject of a thumb nail sketch which will be a feature of this column from time to time. Mrs. Stone who lives at 954 W. 256 street here in Normont Terrace was born in New Rochelle, New York in the year 1907.

Beginning her career with some drawing and moving into the field of commercial art about 1930, Mrs. Stone then became interested in dress design, and attended Lipson's School of

Panhandlers Rummage Sale Aug. 25, 26, 27

The Panhandlers are expecting an unusually successful result from their rummage sale to be held August 25, 26, and 27 at 1638 Pacific Coast Highway. They suggest that anyone who is looking for "just that certain thing" call around, and take advantage of the many attractive articles to be offered. They also wish to remind the general public that for grand fun there is no place that can beat the regular Saturday night dance of the Panhandlers, August 27, at Normont Terrace.

Billy Kainu Celebrates 6th Natal Day

A "merry-go-round" cake, ice cream and punch, in an atmosphere of red and white crepe paper streamers and colored balloons, started Billy Kainu's sixth birthday party off with a zoom. The party was given recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin N. Kainu, 1643 West 256th street. Playing games and having the time of their lives were Barbara Ann Guglianna, Donna Lee Puffetto, Sharon Bench, Mary Ellen Axton, Virginia Miller, Myra and Jan Osmes, Jimmy Mahoney and the honoree's small brother, Mark Wayne Kainu.

Mrs. Ross is Feted by Neighbors

"Our Love to Mrs. Ross" from her neighbors was the inscription on the birthday cake which centered the luncheon table when Mrs. Emma Ross, 246th street was recently feted on her natal day by long-time neighbors who had grown to love her. A hi-toned potluch topped with ice cream and an afternoon of pleasant chit-chat completed the heartwarming affair. Mrs. Ada Andersen and Miss Laura Turcott were co-hostesses, the get-together being held in the home of the latter. Those present were Mrs. Maggie Stickney, Mary Swart, Wilma Murdock, Laura Buchman, Mary Schroeder, Gladys Duffield, Ruth Sandstrom, Grace Owens, Bonnie Hale, Marjorie Welsh, Simone Stickney, Margaret Jones, Mary Comstedt, Virginia Hale; Misses Minnie McLeod, Beverly Ross, Edna Sandstrom, Nellie Sandstrom and Pauline Stickney.
